

Kingdom of Cambodia

Nation Religion King

Ministry of National Defense

Phnom Penh, June 19, 1994

No: 16 B.K

Prakas on Roles and Responsibilities of Medical School of the Royal Cambodian Armed Forces

Minister of the Ministry of National Defense

- Having seen Royal Decree dated July 14, 1993 on the Establishment of the Ministry of National Defense and Command Headquarter of the Royal Cambodian Armed Forces
- Having seen Sub-decree 10 ANK dated January 27, 1995 on the Establishment of Medical School of the Royal Cambodian Armed Forces

Prakas

1- Roles: RCAF Medical School is an entity under the management of Department of Health of the Ministry of National Defense which has a role in providing health training to cope with treatment for sick and injured soldiers of the Royal Cambodian Armed Forces.

2- Responsibilities:

- Provide training
- Implement training program designed by the Ministry of Defense in secondary medicine and pharmacy
- Training secondary medic of the Royal Cambodian Armed Forces
- Manage on-going medic students sending at Faculty of Medicine, Pharmacy and Dentistry
- Designate students, trainees which have successfully completed the course to military unit determined by the Ministry of National Defense
- Research and compile documents, lesson learned and other experiences on health aspects in order to strengthen the capacity of medic teachers

3- Structure of RCAF Medical School is mentioned in the attached organizational charts:

- 1- Director
 - 2- Deputy Director
 - 3- Training Unit
 - 4- Teacher Relations Unit
 - 5- Research & Compilation Unit
 - 6- Personnel Unit
 - 7- Logistics
 - 8- Secretariat
 - 9- Financial
 - 10- Public Relations
 - 11- Procurements and Library
 - 12- 04
 - 13- Foundation Study
 - 14- Clinical Course
 - 15- Pharmaceutical Course
 - 16- Medic Course
 - 17- Operation Course
 - 18- Bio-Chemical Course
 - 19- Nursing Unit
 - 20- Protecting Group
- RCAF Medical School consists of the following staffs: 148 personnel including of General Officer 98 personnel, Non-commissioned officer 29 personnel and soldier 21 personnel.
- 4- Department of Personnel, Department of Health of the Ministry of National Defense, RCAF Medical School and concerned departments shall be implemented this Prakas from the date of signature.

Minister of the Ministry of National Defense

General.Tea Chamrath

General. Tea Banh